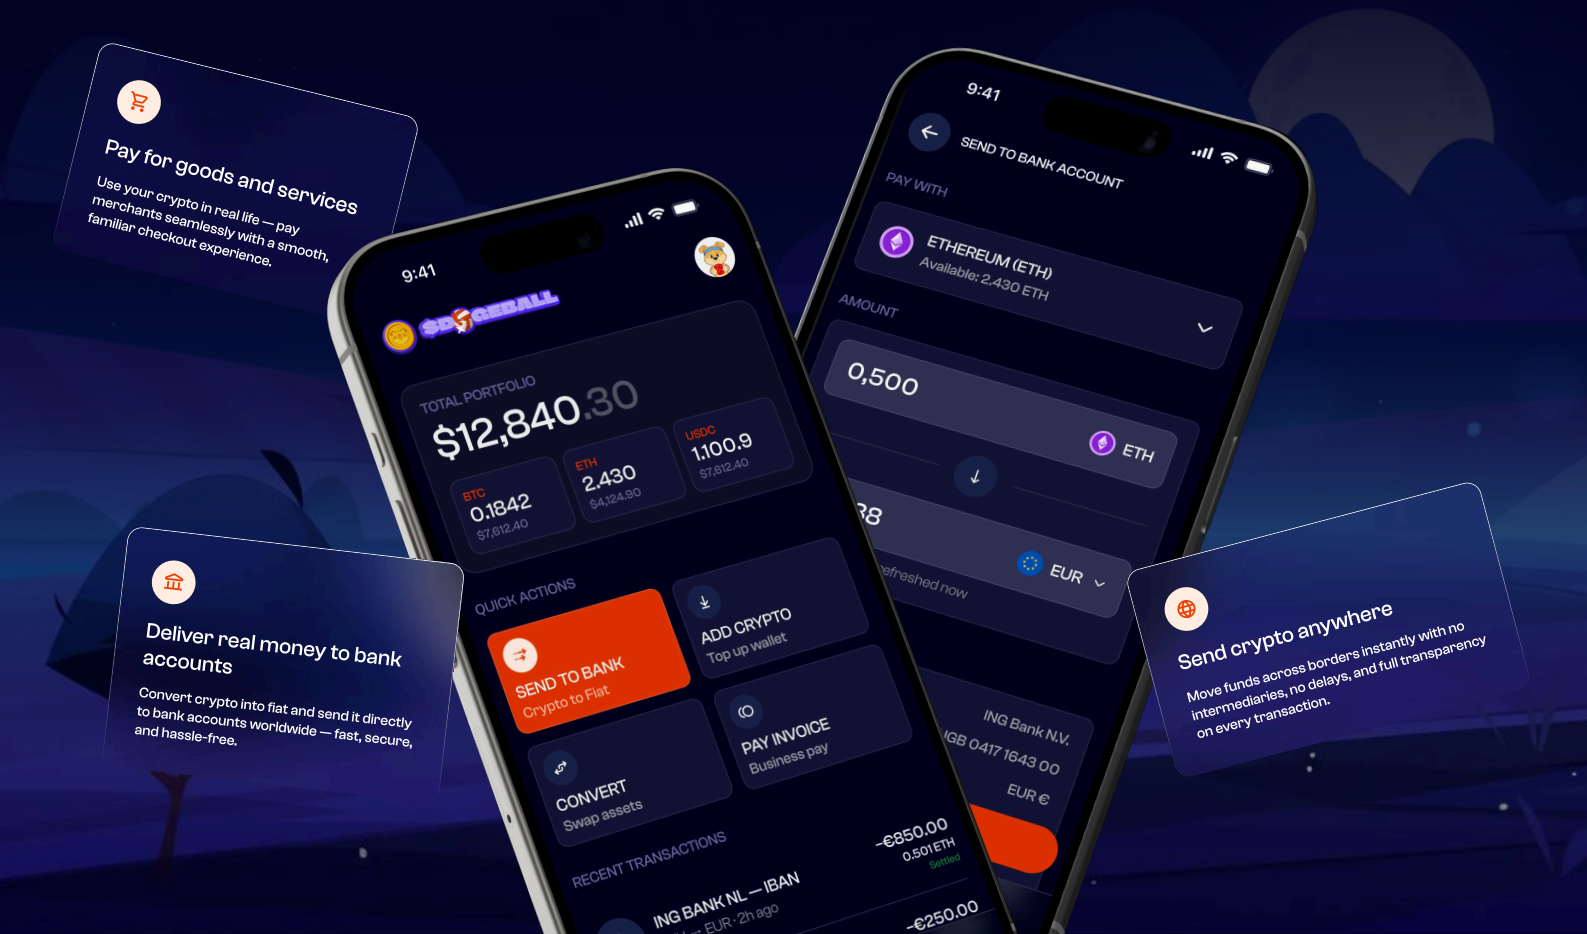
DOGEPAY

$DOGEPAY is a unique Crypto-to-fiat offramp software – convert your crypto into fiat and send to any bank account in the world, with ZERO FX fees.

Crypto will be sent via our custom ETH L2 DOGECHAIN. With near-zero gas fees, super-fast transactions and high security, your crypto will be sent seamlessly as fiat to any bank account of your choice. Any gas fees (almost zero) will be payable using $DOGECHAIN and will be significantly lower (in $ value) than any CEX.

In-game $DOGEBALL rewards can be cashed out to fiat using the $DOGEPAY app (to be released into Apple App Store and Google Play Store after the conclusion of the presale).

$DOGEPAY can be used by global gaming companies and the E-Sports gaming industry to reward users. The Gaming Industry remittances are $200+ billion. GameFI is exploding. DOGECHAIN owns both – you're buying the future of PayFi + GameFi.



DOGEPAY FAQs

What is $DOGEPAY?

$DOGEPAY is a payment network, running on our own custom L2 DOGECHAIN, that allows you to send fiat to any bank account in the world using crypto.

How do I get started?

All transactions will occur on our $DOGEPAY app (available soon in Apple App Store and Google Pay Store). Once users have downloaded the app, they will be assigned a multi-network (multi-chain) wallet address(s). You can send crypto to the $DOGEPAY wallet using your existing crypto wallets.

Are there any fees for sending money?

There are no FX fees for conversion. As the transaction will be completed using our DOGECHAIN, there are near-zero gas fees per transaction which can be paid in $DOGEBALL only.

How do I send money to bank accounts?

Download the $DOGEPAY app, fund your wallet, then choose Send to Bank. Select the crypto, pick the fiat currency, and enter the recipient's IBAN and bank address. You'll see the rate, payout amount, and $DOGEBALL fees upfront. Hit Pay — funds arrive in minutes.

Is there KYC verification required and is the DOGEPAY app licensed?

KYC may be required by external backpay payment providers through which our app sends payments (dependent on area and legal jurisdictions).

The app and service have been granted provisional licenses (currently in-process of being finalized).

How will this integrate with the $DOGEBALL game and gaming industry?

Users can cashout in-game rewards in the $DOGEBALL game using the $DOGEPAY app. The Gaming Industry remittances are $200+ billion. Gaming companies and users can use $DOGEPAY and DOGECHAIN to reward users with actual fiat. GameFI is exploding. DOGECHAIN owns both – you're buying the future of PayFi + GameFi.
